Bylaws of
The Hawaiian Affairs Caucus of
The Democratic Party of Hawai‘i

ARTICLE I - NAME & OFFICE

Section 1 - Name of Organization
The name of this Organization shall be The Hawaiian Affairs Caucus (the Caucus) of the Democratic Party of Hawai‘i (the Party).

Section 2 - Principal Office
The principal office of the Caucus will be that of the elected Chair of the Caucus or such location as selected by decision of the membership at a general business meeting.

ARTICLE II - STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Section 1 - The Mission: Specific Purposes and Objectives
The Hawaiian Affairs Caucus supports and promotes cultural values of aloha, mālama ‘āina, ho’okipa, kuleana and, above all, pono, in alignment with the values of the Democratic Party of Hawai‘i. The Hawaiian Affairs Caucus seeks to address issues of self-determination responsibilities and rights as they relate to protection of Hawaiian cultural practices and sacred sites, information sharing for educational purposes, pono economic development, distribution of wealth to those segments of society most in need, protection of Hawai‘i’s natural resources (on the ‘āina and in the kai), and accountability of public servants identified as Democrats to the mission and goals of the Democratic Party of Hawaii with regard to the above objectives.

ARTICLE III - VALUES

Section 1 – Values: Our work within the ‘ohana, in the community, and with one another will reflect these values:

Aloha (Love). Care about our members and Hawai‘i’s community.

Kuleana (To be responsible): Participate, support, and contribute to the well being of the Hawaiian Affairs Caucus. As the ‘āina holds us accountable for its well-being (the people will thrive as the ‘āina thrives), so we are required to hold ourselves and others accountable to the well-being for our society. We pledge to hold accountable all public servants identified as Democrats to the mission and goals of The Democratic Party of Hawai‘i.

Pono (Humanity and righteousness). Assure that everyone in Hawai‘i is treated with dignity and has access to work or income, a safe place to live, nourishing food to eat, accurate and appropriate education, and health care that promotes well-being. We advocate a pono economic system that takes into account existing inequalities, finite space, transmigration, and the limited resources of our island home, ka pae ‘āina. We recognize that the rights and responsibilities accorded to the people of Hawai‘i today directly reflect Hawaiian social, cultural and spiritual values that have evolved from time immemorial.

‘Imi ‘ike (Seek knowledge): Seek knowledge to enable sound and informed decisions.

Malama ‘āina (Care for the land): Acknowledge the ‘āina as a living being, as parent, and therefore requiring our care in order to thrive. Our kuleana is to

1) malama ‘āina as the ‘āina malama us and;
2) Protect ALL of Hawai‘i’s natural resources (on the ‘āina and in the kai).

We believe that from our relationship to the ‘āina springs forth our relationship to one another. The ‘āina teaches us how to express aloha, malama ‘āina, kuleana and to ho‘okipa, by providing space for others who believe and behave likewise.

We support sustainability that will lead to abundance.

Malama kupuna and our ancestors: Honor and respect our elders for they are our foundation.

Na‘au Pono (Justice): Nurture and practice a deep sense of justice in all that we do.

Ho‘okipa (Welcome): Welcome all members with aloha.

Ho‘ihi (Respect): Hold discussions in a respectful manner and respect the views of all.

‘Olu ‘olu (Graciousness, pleasantness): Be gracious and pleasant during our meetings.

Lokomaika‘i (To share with each other): Work together for the whole.
